Dear Sol,

I am delighted with your new appointment and your willingness to take on this critical role for our country. Let me offer whatever support we can give you. In accordance with your desires, we'll be happy to send you our regular reporting on the Middle East and/or to develop particular oral or written materials at your request. You have your work cut out for you and I'd like to be as supportive as we can.

Congratulations and good wishes as you move ahead.

Yours,

STANSFIELD TURNER
